

STUDENT ENROLMENT ACADEMIC YEAR 2009/2010

UNDERGRADUATE AND POSTGRADUATE PROGRAMMES

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates for enrolment on Full-Time/Part-Time Undergraduate Programmes and Part-Time Postgraduate Programmes in academic year 2009/2010.

We thank all candidates who have previously applied for our programmes. For those candidates who have not yet secured a seat, the University is pleased to reconsider them on programmes where there are still vacancies. Such candidates will not be required to pay any additional application fee.

Candidates should ensure that they meet the programme requirements. These requirements are available at <http://www.uom.ac.mu/admissions>. Applicants for Undergraduate Programmes are invited to make use of a Toolkit at the following address: <http://online.uom.ac.mu/toolkit> as an aid to choosing their programmes.

VACANCIES IN SEVERAL PROGRAMMES !

MATURE CANDIDATES

Mature candidates who do not meet the minimum entry requirements may apply for all Undergraduate and taught Postgraduate Programmes as advertised. (Please refer to Section 1.6 of the "General Information to Students" handbook available at <http://www.uom.ac.mu/admissions/calendar/regulations/CHAP1.htm>). They must submit a letter applying for admission as mature candidate and submit documentary evidence of work experience together with their Application form.

♦ This is a high-calibre, 2-year extended Masters programme in Economics offered by the University of Mauritius in close collaboration with the African Economic Research Consortium (AERC – website: www.aercafrica.org), a public, non-profit making organisation devoted to advanced economic research and training, based in Nairobi, Kenya. Students will spend their first year at the University of Mauritius, where they will take 3 core modules and sit for the examinations (around May 2010). On successful completion of the core modules, students will travel to Nairobi late June 2010 to take 2 elective modules over one semester at the Joint Facility for Electives (JFE), Nairobi. Finally, they will return to the University of Mauritius to prepare their MA thesis during the 4th semester.

All fees relating to the programme are payable to the University of Mauritius. However, the AERC, as per practice, will meet tuition costs for all students at the JFE, Nairobi. In addition, it will take care of the travel and accommodation costs for students not sponsored by their employer.
