

The Meera Ramdoyal-Shah Foundation

PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS

Offer for a University Scholarship

The Meera Ramdoyal-Shah Foundation, in collaboration with the University of Mauritius, is offering a scholarship on an annual basis, to a highly capable undergraduate student requiring financial assistance for studies at the University of Mauritius. The student must have obtained admission on a first year full-time undergraduate programme of studies at the Faculty of Law and Management, University of Mauritius, in the academic year 2009/2010. Applicants for the scholarship must satisfy the eligibility criteria established by the Meera Ramdoyal-Shah Foundation.

Full details regarding eligibility and the terms and conditions of the scholarship may be consulted by interested students from the Notice Boards at the Faculty of Law and Management, or from the website of the University of Mauritius at <http://www.uom.ac.mu>.

Application forms can be obtained from the Admission and Students Record Office of the University of Mauritius.

The selected candidate may be considered for a 2-month secondment with PricewaterhouseCoopers in Mauritius.

Deadline for submission of application form: Friday 2 October 2009.

The Meera Ramdoyal-Shah Foundation is a trust incorporated in Mauritius, with as objective to promote the advancement of education through the financing of educational facilities based on one's family income and individual merits.

24 September 2009