18.2 SCHOLARSHIPS

No student can hold more than one scholarship award concurrently.

18.2.1 Postgraduate Studies

(i) Postgraduate Scholarships awarded by the University of Mauritius

There may be one University of Mauritius postgraduate scholarship per Faculty per year, to the value of Rs14,200 per month for MPhil and Rs 15,500 per month for PhD, all inclusive, tenable at the University only. The duration of the Postgraduate Scholarship shall be of up to two (2) years for MPhil and an additional two (2) years upon transfer from MPhil to PhD. An extension of six months may also be granted subject to satisfactory progress reports with a view to completing either an MPhil or a PhD.

The postgraduate scholarship will be awarded to the best student (on the final year of a degree programme) on the basis of overall performance throughout the three or four years of the degree programme. A postgraduate scholarship cannot be postponed by a scholar to another academic year. A scholar from a particular Faculty/Centre may undertake postgraduate studies/research in any Faculty/Centre of her/his choice at the University of Mauritius.

When a postgraduate scholar from a Faculty prefers to follow a part-time taught Master's Programme instead of undertaking an MPhil/PhD by research, the postgraduate scholarship awarded to her/him will be shared equally with the next best graduate from the same Faculty, who also wishes to follow a part-time taught Master's Programme or a part-time MPhil Programme. The monthly stipend of Rs 14,200 will be split equally between the two scholars for the normal duration of the programmes and tuition fees and general fees (excluding Registration and Students' Welfare Fund) will also be waived. The monthly stipend of Rs 14,200 for MPhil and Rs 15,500 for PhD may also be split between two part-time scholars for the normal duration of the programmes.

(ii) Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) MPhil/PhD Postgraduate Scholarships

The Scheme is advertised by TEC and is open to Mauritian candidates wishing to read for MPhil/PhD programmes either on a full-time or a part-time basis under the TEC Postgraduate Scholarship Scheme tenable at the University of Mauritius. The candidates must hold at least an Upper Second Class Honours degree in the appropriate subject from a recognised institution or alternative equivalent qualifications acceptable to the institution. The chosen field should be one in which research expertise and facilities are available at the University.

Scholarships (Full-time students)

Full-time awardees will receive a stipend of Rs 14,200 monthly for MPhil and Rs 15,500 monthly for PhD (or if upgraded to PhD), plus waiving of tuition fees payable per annum.

Scholarships (Part-time students)

Part-time awardees doing either MPhil, MPhil/PhD or PhD will be given a scholarship which will cover the tuition fees.

Duration of the award

MPhil : 2 years (F/T) / 3 years (P/T)
MPhil/PhD: 3 years (F/T) / 5 Years (P/T)
PhD : 2 years (F/T) / 3 years (P/T)

Further information on the award is available at the 'Admissions and Student Records Office'.

(iii) Mauritius Research Council (MRC) Postgraduate Award

The MRC Postgraduate award is advertised by the MRC and principally targets both unemployed and employed graduates to undertake research studies at a local tertiary education institution, leading to an MPhil or a PhD. The MRC anticipates awarding, on a competitive basis, up to 20 such postgraduate awards. The award covers all registration/tuition fees up to a maximum of Rs 40,000 a year.

The scheme is open to candidates holding at least a first degree in a relevant field and who meet the registration criteria and follow the registration procedures of the institution where the research study will be carried out. The areas of the research studies must be from sectors which are the current priorities of the MRC at the time of the advertisement.

Applicants in full-time employment should provide evidence from their employer that they will be granted adequate release to undertake the part-time research studies.

Further information on the award is available at the 'Admissions and Student Records Office'.

(iv) Tertiary Education Commission (TEC) Postdoctoral Research Fellowships

The Fellowship is advertised by TEC and is open to Mauritian citizens who hold a PhD and at least an Upper Second Class Honours degree from a recognised institution or alternative equivalent qualifications acceptable to the institution. The chosen field should be one in which research expertise and facilities are available at the University. The awardee will receive a monthly allowance of Rs17, 600 for up to two years.

Further information on the award is available at the 'Admissions and Student Records Office'

(v) The Food and Allied Group Research Grant

A grant of Rs 30,000 will be awarded every year to a postgraduate student undertaking research in fields such as “Food, Hotel and Services related to IT or Advertising or Shipping.”

18.2.2 Undergraduate Studies

(i) Scholarships awarded by the University of Mauritius

There may be two scholarships per Faculty/CILL per year of study: one per year of study for full-time degree stream students and the other per year of study for diploma stream students. The scholarships shall be granted on merit after yearly assessment and the value of each scholarship will be Rs 7 000 all inclusive. At the end of the Diploma/Degree programmes, the scholarships will take the form of a cash award.

(ii) Scholarships awarded by the University of Mauritius to School Leavers ranked after Laureates
