

CHAPTER 5

REGULATIONS FOR THE CONDUCT OF UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

5.1 The Examining Body

- (i) University examinations shall be conducted under the control of Senate.
- (ii) Examiners and assessors shall be appointed by Senate in the manner it shall prescribe.
- (iii) Dates, places and times for examinations as specified in the examination time-tables shall be published under the authority of Senate.

5.2 The Chief Examination Officer

- (i) The Registrar shall be the Chief Examination Officer for all entrance scholarship, semester, yearly and final examinations of the University and shall be responsible for the organisation of the examinations and the release of results once they have been approved by Senate.
- (ii) The Registrar shall ensure that provisional and final examination time-tables are posted on the Notice Boards of the Faculties/Centres.
- (iii) Representations from students regarding matters connected with examinations should be made to the Registrar.

5.3 Admission to Examinations

- (i) Subject to any exceptions approved by Senate:
  - (a) no student shall be admitted to an examination unless he/she is a registered student of the University.
  - (b) a student who does not register for his/her modules on the Online Module Registration System (OMRS) shall not be admitted to the examinations.
- (ii) Senate shall have power to recognise attendance and examinations passed at other universities or institutions recognised for this purpose by Senate. Such recognition shall be given at the beginning of the academic year in which admission is secured provided Senate is satisfied that the programme of examinations passed is of sufficiently high standard and that content of the programme and the examinations passed are equivalent to those of a corresponding university programme or examination.
- (iv) On the recommendation of the Faculty/Centre Board, Senate may ask a student who fails to make satisfactory progress in any academic year to withdraw or repeat any part of the programme before the examinations. Illness or other extenuating circumstances shall receive special consideration.

Note:

- Students whose names do not appear on the seating list will be admitted to examinations as “Unexpected Students”, given that there may be other reasons beyond the students’ control, which have not allowed them to register for modules on-line. In the meantime, Faculty/Centre Exam Sections will investigate the reason(s) for such discrepancies.
- Given the legal implications of admitting a student to an examination, the examination script of an “Unexpected Student” should be marked and the marks submitted to the Board of Examiners for recommendations, in line with UoM Regulations.

**The official “Unexpected Student who turns up for Examinations” Form mentions that “Unexpected students” who take examinations do so at their own risk and have to abide by the final decision(s) to be taken by the relevant Board(s) concerned.*

5.4 Form of Examinations

- (i) The Examiners may require a student to present herself/himself to the following forms of examinations as prescribed by the Programme of Studies and approved by Senate:
  - Written Examination
  - Continuous Assessment (Refer to Code of Practice)
http://www.uom.ac.mu/ABOUTUS/QA/procedure\_continuous\_assess/PracticeCode\_Nov%2009\_.pdf
  - Case Study
  - Oral Examination
  - Dissertations/Projects
  - Poster Presentation
  - Viva Voce
  - Industrial Placement/Practical Training/Practicums/Hospital Placement
  - Work-Based Learning (WBL)
  - Open Book Examination
- (ii) Percentages of marks for the written, practical, oral or other examinations shall be determined by Senate on the recommendation of the Faculty/Centre Board concerned.
- (i) In considering whether a student has passed an examination, the Board of Examiners may also have regard to the report of the academic members concerned on the classwork of the student.

Note: Academic member includes both Full-time and Part-time Lecturers.

- (iv) Open Book Examination may be held subject to the following conditions:
  - Students should have been informed by the examiner(s) via, the Module Specification Sheet (MSS);
  - Normal procedures, along the same lines as for conduct of Written Examinations should prevail.
- (v) Case Study may be held subject to the following conditions:

- Students should have been informed by the examiner(s) via, the Module Specification Sheet (MSS).
- Normal procedures, along the same lines as for conduct of Written Examinations should prevail.

Please refer to “Guidelines for Processing of Examination Results at UoM”

5.5 The Conduct of Examination

(i) Before Examination

- (a) Requests from students, suffering from physical disability or otherwise, for additional time during examination, should be lodged in writing to the Dean of Faculty/Director of Centre, who will submit same for consideration and approval to the relevant Faculty/Centre Board provided such requests are supported by valid medical certificates. Such requests should be submitted at latest two (2) weeks prior to the start of examinations.
- (b) Examination timetables will be placed on the Faculty/ Centre Notice Boards, e-mailed to the students and posted on the University Website two (2) weeks before the start of the examination.
- (c) Students shall be responsible for noting correctly the times and places of their examinations. No special arrangements shall be made for students who fail to attend examination at the proper time, if such failure is due to their mistake or inadvertance and not to illness or other serious and unavoidable cause.
- (d) In case of temporary disability whereby the extra time for examinations, recommended by the Medical Officer/Medical Board, is less than 25%, the approval stops at the level of Faculty/Centre Board.
- (e) If the additional time recommended for temporary disability by a Medical Officer for examinations is greater than 25% then the matter will be referred to the Registrar, who will give a ruling, after consultation with a Medical Officer and either the relevant Dean of Faculty or Head of Department or Representative.

5.9 Examinations

- (i) In any academic year, there are normally only 2 examination periods namely:
- End of Semester 1 and
  - End of Semester 2.

No examinations will normally be held apart from these specific periods. Modules may be examined at the end of the academic year or end of semester 2 even if they were delivered in semester 1.

- (ii) (a) A student who fails to satisfy the examiners in a core module will have to retake the module; in case of failure in electives, student may take the electives afresh, or take other electives.
- (b) Information on factors that could adversely affect the performance of a student in the Semester, Yearly or Final Examination should be brought to the attention of the Dean of Faculty/ Centre Director in writing well before the results of the student are referred to the Board of Examiners.

- (iii) The award of honours, distinction and merit shall be based on the candidate's performance throughout her/his studies, and in such other test of assessment as the Senate may from time to time require.

5.10 Publication of Results

- (i) Official non-final/final examination results as approved by Chairman of Senate shall be posted on-line for students to access their transcripts directly.
- (ii) Official notification of the University Final examination results as confirmed by Senate shall be sent to each student by the Registrar.
- (iii) Appeals made by students who are not satisfied with their examination results shall be submitted to the Examinations Office, which will investigate with the relevant Examination section to ensure that procedural irregularity has not occurred; any anomalies detected by the Examinations Office/Director QA will be referred to the Chairman of Senate for final decision.

5.11 Examination Irregularities

- (i) Where the Chief Invigilator notices or is made to notice any case of examination irregularity, s/he shall immediately report the facts, in writing, through the Dean of Faculty/ Centre Director to the Registrar who shall refer the matter to the Chairperson of the Discipline Committee through the Secretary.
- (ii) The student in question shall be notified by the Secretary of the Discipline Committee (Examination & Plagiarism), in writing, of the charges against him/her.
- (iii) Pending the decision of the Discipline Committee process, the student will be allowed to write any remaining University examinations. The decision to assess or not to assess the student's scripts shall be taken in the light of the findings of the Discipline Committee.
- (iv) Cases of examination irregularity being probed by the Discipline Committee shall be notified by the Registrar to the Chairperson of the Board of Examiners concerned so that examiners shall not mark any answer scripts of the candidate(s) involved until notified by Senate. The Examiner shall however obtain access to the answer script for the purpose of filling in the Examiners' Report to be submitted to the Discipline Committee.
- (v) A student may plead guilty if s/he has been alleged to have breached examination regulations. S/he need not attend the Discipline Committee on the date mentioned if s/he pleads guilty through the 'Student's Report'. The Student's Report Form (available at the Faculty/Centre Registry) should reach the Secretary of the Discipline Committee not less than three days before the date the hearing of the Discipline Committee is scheduled.
- (vi) A student can appeal to Senate through the Secretary against any decision of Senate, following the recommendation of the Discipline Committee provided that the notice of appeal is lodged within fourteen calendar days of the Registrar's serving notice of the decision against which the student is appealing. The decision of Senate shall be final. Please refer to Section 4.2.3.3 of Chapter 4 of this handbook for procedures to lodge an appeal with the Senate.

5.12 Penalties Imposed in case of Breach of Examination Regulations

1. The Discipline Committee (Examination & Plagiarism) shall make its own assessment of the gravity of the offence and will accordingly recommend one penalty or more from the following list of penalties, for Senate's approval. When determining the penalty to be imposed, account shall be taken of the consequences which the penalty will have for the academic progress of the student concerned.
2. Any student found guilty of Breach of Examination Regulations/Plagiarism and Fabrication or Falsification of Result(s)/Document(s) will be given a formal reprimand and warning about future behaviour.
