

BA (Hons) Hindi (F/T) - GI300 (Under Review)

1. Objectives

The degree programme is designed to provide knowledge and competence in the field of language, culture and society and prepare at undergraduate level for specialisation in a number of professions in such sectors as teaching, the civil service, the media or public relations.

2. General Entry Requirements

In accordance with the University General Entry Requirements for admission to undergraduate degree Programmes.

3. Programme Requirement

GCE 'A' Level in Hindi with at least Grade C.

4. Programme Duration

	Normal	Maximum
Degree:	3 years (6 semesters)	5 years (10 semesters)

5. Minimum Credits Required for Degree Award: 105

Breakdown as follows:

	Credits from
	Core Taught Modules	Optional Core	Dissertation	Electives	Compulsory Electives	CSE 1010e(1)
Degree	60	6	9	9	18	3

Note: Students are expected to take one from the two optional core modules in Level/Year 3 (namely Hindi Drama and Study of a Special Author) and if they fail in the chosen module they should compulsorily retake the same.

6. Credits per Year

Minimum 18 credits, Maximum 48 credits subject to Regulation 4 above.

Students should register for Yearly modules and Semester modules (where appropriate), only at the start of the module, at the beginning of the academic year.

7. Assessment

Each module can either be taught in one semester only or throughout the two semesters.

Each module will be assessed over 100 marks.

Assessment will be based on a written examination of 2 to 3 hours' duration (normally a paper of 2 hours' duration for modules carrying up to three credits, and 3 hour papers for modules carrying up to six credits) and on continuous assessment done during the semester or year.

Written examinations for all modules, whether taught in semester 1 or in semester 2 or both, except for MST 2122(3) (unless otherwise stated) will be carried out at the end of the academic year. Relevant information will be provided to the students prior to delivery of the modules.

The continuous assessment will count for 10-40% of the overall percentage mark of the module(s), except for a Programme where the structure makes for other specific provision(s),

Continuous assessment may be based on laboratory work, seminars and/or assignments and should include at least 1 class test.

For all yearly modules, the compulsory class test will be held at the end of semester 1 of that academic year unless stated otherwise in the Programme Structure.

A minimum of at least 30% should be attained in each of continuous assessment and written examination, with an overall total of 40% for a candidate to pass a module.

Special examinations (e.g. class tests) will be arranged at the end of semester 1 or semester 2 for exchange students who have registered only for one semester. In case of yearly modules, credits will be assigned on a pro-rata basis.

Module codes with an 'R' at the end [e.g. Medieval Hindi Poetry] which appear in Year 2 of the Programme structure are modules containing a strong research component and/or a course in research methodology. Such type of modules will be assessed by one research assignment and continuous assessment carrying up to 60% of total marks and a written examination. Students must obtain a minimum of 50% in the research assignment. A second examiner will also mark the research assignment. For a student to pass, an overall total of 50% (examination, continuous assessment and research assignment) must be obtained in that module.

8. Programme Organisation

The BA (Hons) Hindi programme is made up of 18 modules including a dissertation distributed as follows:

Distribution of modules

	Module Credits Attempted
Year 1	4 x 6 = 24 (Core) 1 x 6 = 6 (Elective) 1 x 3 = 3 (CSE 1010e(1)) 1 x 3 = 3 (Elective)
	TOTAL = 36
Year 2	5 x 6 = 30 (Core) 1 x 6 = 6 (Compulsory Elective)
	TOTAL = 36
Year 3	1 x 6 = 6 (Core) 1 x 6 = 6 (Optional Core) 2 x 6 = 12 (Compulsory Electives) 1 x 9 = 9 (Dissertation)
	TOTAL = 33
GRAND TOTAL	105

9. Submission Deadline for Dissertation

In Year 3, students will have to write a dissertation of 8,000 to 10,000 words. This will carry 9 credits.

Submission date for final copy of dissertation: To be specified by the Department.

10. Repeat and Termination of Registration

If the CPA of a student is < 40 for an academic year, s/he will have to repeat the entire academic year, and retake modules as and when offered. However, s/he will not be required, if s/he wishes, to retake module(s) for which Grade C or above has been obtained.

Students will be allowed to repeat only once over the entire duration of the Programme of Studies.

Registration of a student will be terminated if:

- (i) the CPA < 40 at the end of an academic year and the student has already repeated one year of study; or
- (ii) the maximum duration allowed for completion of the Programme of Studies has been exceeded.

11. Modules of Special Nature

A student can take a maximum of 9 credits of Self-Study Subjects and Independent Study, subject to recommendation by the Department and approved by the Board of Studies.
