

BA (Hons) Telugu (F/T) - GI309

1. Objectives

The degree programme is designed to provide knowledge and skills in the field of language, literature and society. It prepares students at undergraduate level leading to a number of professions in such sectors as teaching, the services, the media and industry.

2. General Entry Requirements

In accordance with the University General Entry Requirements for admission to undergraduate degree Programmes.

3. Programme Requirement

Telugu with at least Grade C at 'A' Level.

4. Programme Duration

	Normal	Maximum
Degree (Full time):	3 years	5 years

5. Minimum Credits Required For Degree Award - 102

Breakdown as follows:

Core Modules	Optional Core Module	Dissertation	Electives	Compulsory Electives	CSE 1010e(1)
66	6	6	9	12	3

Note: Students are expected to take one from the two optional core modules in Year/ Level 3 namely Drama and Study of a Special Author and if they fail in the chosen module they should compulsorily retake the same module.

6. Credits per Year

Maximum 48 credits
Minimum 18 credits

Students should register for Yearly modules and Semester modules, at the beginning of the academic year or at the start of the semester as the case may arise.

7. Assessment

Each module may be taught in either one semester or throughout the two semesters (yearly module).

Each module will be assessed over 100 marks.

Assessment will be based on a written examination of 2 to 3 hours' duration (normally a paper of 2 hours' duration for modules carrying three credits, and 3 hour papers for modules carrying six credits) and on continuous assessment done during the semester or year.

Students will take their written examinations for all modules, whether taught in semester 1 or in semester 2 or both, except for MST 2122(3) at the end of the academic year. Relevant information will be provided to them prior to delivery of the modules.

The continuous assessment will count for 10-40% of the overall percentage mark of the module(s), except for a programme where the structure makes for other specific provision(s),

Continuous assessment may be based on laboratory work, seminars and/or assignments and should include at least 1 class test.

For all yearly modules, the compulsory class test will be held at the end of semester 1 of that academic year unless stated otherwise in the Programme Structure.

Candidates will have to score a minimum of 30% in each component: continuous assessment and written examination with an overall total of 40% to pass a module.

Special examinations (e.g. class tests) will be arranged at the end of semester 1 or semester 2 for exchange students who have registered only for one semester. In case of yearly modules, credits will be assigned on a pro-rata basis.

Module codes with an 'R' at the end which appear in Year II of the Programme structure are modules containing a strong research component and/or a course in research methodology. Such type of modules will be assessed by one research assignment and continuous assessment carrying up to 60% of total marks and a written examination. Students must obtain a minimum of 50% in the research assignment. A second examiner will also mark the research assignment.

For a student to pass, an overall total of 50% (examination, continuous assessment and research assignment) must be obtained in that module.

8. Programme Organisation

The BA (Hons) Telugu programme is made up of 19 Modules including a dissertation distributed as follows:

Distribution of modules

Year 1	4 x 6 = 24 (Core) 1 x 6 = 6 (Elective) 1 x 3 = 3 (CSE l010e) 1 x 3 = 3 (Elective)
	TOTAL = 36
Year 2	5 x 6 = 30 (Core) 2 x 3 = 6 (Compulsory Electives)
	TOTAL = 36
Year 3	2 x 6 = 12 (Core) 1 x 6 = 6 (Optional Core) 1 x 6 = 6 (Compulsory Elective) 1 x 6 = 6 (Dissertation)
	TOTAL = 30
GRAND TOTAL	102

9. Submission Deadline For Dissertation

In Year 3, students will have to write a dissertation of about 8,000 words. This will carry 6 credits.

Submission date for final copy of dissertation: To be specified by the Department.

10. Repeat and Termination of Registration

If the CPA of a student is < 40 for an academic year, he/she will have to repeat the entire academic year, and retake modules as and when offered. However, he/she will not be required, if he/she wishes, to retake module(s) for which Grade C or above has been obtained.

Students will be allowed to repeat only once over the entire duration of the Programme of Studies.

Registration of a student will be terminated if:

- (i) the CPA < 40 at the end of an academic year and the student has already repeated one year of study; or
- (ii) the maximum duration allowed for completion of the Programme of Studies has been exceeded.

11. Modules of Special Nature
