

Job Title

Quality and Product development manager

Purpose

We are currently recruiting for a quality and product development manager that will be responsible for the testing department and new product development phases.

Profile

- Age: around 30 and above
- Holder of driving license + vehicle
- Has worked in the food sector previously
- Team spirit
- Hardworker
- Good communication skills
- Can work in teams
- Proficient in Microsoft office (words/excel...)

Duties and responsibilities

- Develop a quality 'cahier de charge' that the products will adhere based on company's target certification (ISO/BRCGs...)
 - Make a schema of process flow
 - Identify Critical Control Points (CCPs)
 - Establish tests required to monitor the CCPs
 - Perform identified test
 - Interpret and validate results and establish conformity
 - Set up and commissioning of laboratory
 - Perform daily lab tests on samples from production
 - Interpret the results to validate conformity before release to clients
 - Assist in certifications/audits from independent laboratories/certifying bodies
- *A lab assistant will be provided to help in performing the above duties
- Interpret local laws and regulations in regards to new product requirement
 - Assist in development phases associated with new products

Required qualifications

- Bachelor in microbiology/food science
- Masters in food safety
- Diploma/training in compliance to ISO/BRCGs...
- Minimum 3 years experience in laboratory testing (food sector)

Salary

Attractive salary will be proposed after initial meeting.

If interested, please send your CV to zaafir.emritte@goldenlay.mu or call on 245 9297 / 58148040

