

JOB OPENINGS - ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES - FOR JUNIOR SPECIALIST- FULL TIME EMPLOYMENT

- Record and handle raw data by following set instructions and procedures to ensure accurate and consistent information for departmental;
- Feeding and watering of all animals in the facility by following set instructions and procedures to ensure healthy and well-cared for animals;
- Monitor animal health and recognize pain and distress and the detection of early signs of ill health in the animals
- Regular updating of animal records: deaths, births, acquisitions, health, reproductive conditions, etc.
- Intensive cleaning and decontamination of animal housing, equipment and/or a facility by following set instructions and procedures, ensuring that such is properly decontaminated and cleaned;
- Ensure maintenance for all physical plant and systems as instructed by management (plumbing, electrics, fencing, housing, buildings, etc.)
- Interact and handle animals by following set instructions and procedures to ensure content, well-adjusted and cared for animals;
- Assist Veterinarian and/or Veterinary Technician in daily routine treatments, surgery, post mortem and breeding/ export/ capture/ research protocol
- Transferring information from daily log book to permanent files and animal management database
- Ability to operate emergency first aid and minor surgeries under Vet supervision
- Use and verification of relevant equipment by following set instructions and procedures in order to correctly use and verify equipment for tasks allocated
- Verification, monitoring and control of environmental monitoring devices (temperature, humidity and water quality) by following set instructions and procedures to ensure a correct controlled climate and safe water quality for animal consumption and use.

PROFILE

- A bachelor's degree in Agricultural science and technology or any related field will be an advantage.
- Good communication, organizational, and problem-solving skills are also important.
- Proficiency in Microsoft Office tools such as Excel and PowerPoint are important/ Computer Literate.

SALARY

Proposed Salary: Rs 30,000 excluding advantages. (Negotiated on Experiences)

Please send your CV and motivational letter to s.ureellanah@lcl-life.com